erin d. mcLellan Receives James W. Carey Communication Research Grant

The Urban Communication Foundation (UCF) has announced that Dr. erin d. mcLellan has been awarded the fourth annual International Communication Association James W. Carey Urban Communication Research Grant. Dr. mcLellan teaches in the Department of Communication at Boise State University. She will be presented with the 2011 grant at the International Communication Association Awards ceremony on May 28th at the Westin Boston Waterfront Hotel.

Dr. mcLellan will be awarded $1000 for her proposal A Study of Boston's City Hall Plaza. In announcing the award, Dr. Lana Rakow, chair of the jury, noted that Dr. mcLellan's work "is part of a larger project studying how people interact with their city centers."

This award, named after the distinguished communication scholar James W. Carey, is one of many that the Urban Communication Foundation sponsors in cooperation with other organizations that enhance our understanding of communication patterns in the urban environment and encourages collaboration between communication scholars, urban planners and policy makers.
